Background Summary

Lead full-stack engineer with 9+ years of experience building web, mobile, backend, and cloud products across North Africa, Europe, and Asia.

I work across React, Next.js, React Native, Node.js, TypeScript, PostgreSQL, MongoDB, AWS, Supabase, Google Cloud, and AI-assisted product workflows.

I have led development teams, mentored engineers, defined architecture, reviewed code, planned releases, and worked closely with designers, founders, and clients to turn business goals into production-ready software.

My work includes products and delivery for companies and clients such as Trisilco, Otonoco AI, KOHA, Spon.Social, Walmart, TATA, Finimize, Juiceplus, and Adsumnetworks.
